3 SECRETS TO A CLEANER BUILDING ...

- 1 Choose a locally owned business managed by a seasoned professional.

When you choose tower, you'll contract with the owner of our business -- not a branch office with layers of management. We're an established part of your community, and we put our reputation behind each and every job.

“What a pleasure it has been since we switched to Tower... with one ongoing conscientious supervisor who treats the building as if were her own”

- Phil Whitmoyer, Facility Manager, Rockwell International

“The cleaning crew is very thorough and courteous. We would recommend tower to anyone.

- Major Robert J. Reel, General Secretary, The Salvation Army

“Tower provided Reasonable costs with outstanding results... the tenants saw a dramatic improvement. Tower stands above the rest.”

- Stan Cichoki, Property Manager, Jackson Cross Company

- 2 Choose a cleaning crew whose compensation depends upon your satisfaction.

Tower supervisors share in the profits of each contract they serve, so their focus is on your satisfaction. Your crew cares about you and your facility and strives for perfection every night. you'll notice the difference.

- 3 Choose a company with a national reputation for excellence.

Tower is a national network of independent cleaning businesses dedicated to providing 100% customer satisfaction. You'll benefit from our national buying power, formal training, industry expertise, and 24 hour per day customer service hotline.
